To the dark Goddess (the snake):

Because you have done this,
cursed are you
among all the animals, tame or wild;
On your belly you shall crawl,
and dust you shall eat
all the days of your life.^[d]

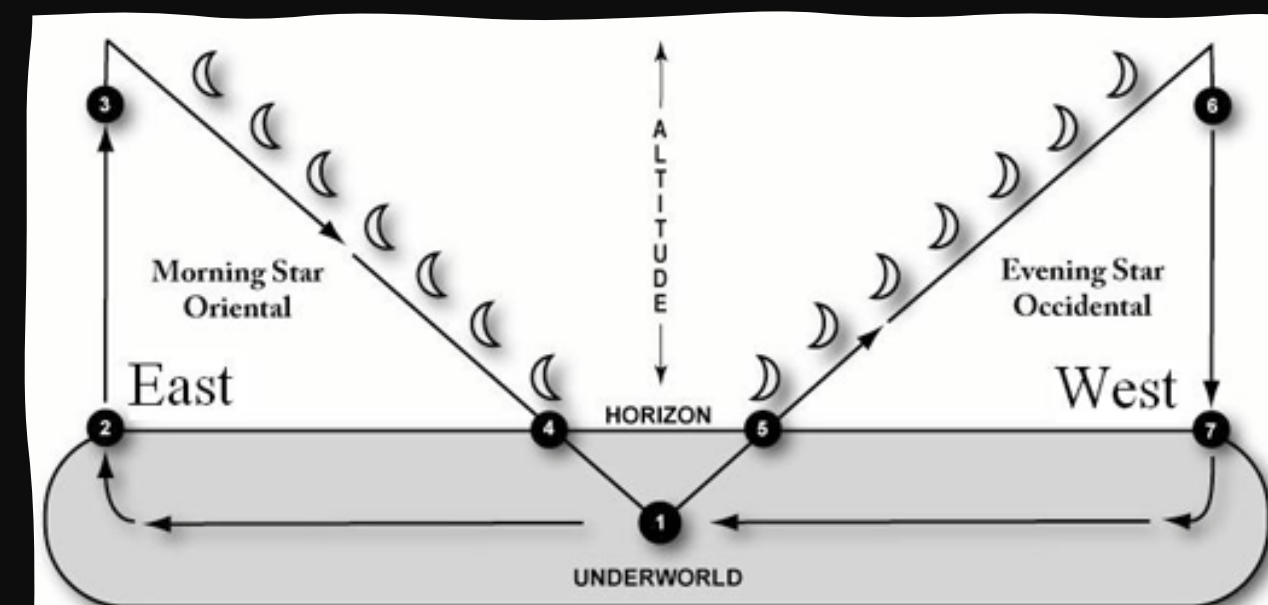

To the feminine (Eve)

I will intensify your toil in childbearing;
in pain^f you shall bring forth children.
Yet your urge shall be for your husband,
and he shall rule over you.

To the masculine (Adam)

By the sweat of your brow
you shall eat bread,
Until you return to the ground,
from which you were taken;

INNANAS'S GARDEN

In the first days, in the very first days,
In the first nights, in the very first nights,
in the first years, the very first years.

In the first days when everything needed was brought into being.
In the first days when everything needed was properly nourished.

When bread was baked in the shrines of the land,
And bread was tasted in the homes of the land,
When heaven had moved away from earth,
And earth had separated from heaven,
And the name of man was fixed.

At that time, a tree, a single tree, a huluppu-tree
Was planted by the banks of the Euphrates.
The tree was nurtured by the waters of the Euphrates.

Inanna cared for the tree with her hand.
She settled the earth around the tree with her foot.

She wondered:

How long will it be until I have a shining throne to sit upon?
How long will it be until I have a shining bed to lie upon?

The years passed' five years, then ten years.
The tree grew thick.

Then a serpent who could not be charmed
Made its nest in the roots of the huluppu-tree.
The Anzu-bird set his young in the branches of the tree.
And the dark maid Lilith built her home in the trunk.

The young woman who loved to laugh wept (...)
Innana called to her brother Utu (...)
Inanna called to her brother Gilgamesh (...)

Gilgamesh the valient warrior, Gilgamesh,
The hero of Uruk, stood by Innana,
Gilgamesh fastened his armor of fifty minas around his chest (...)
He lifted his bronze ax, the ax of the road,
weighting seven talents and seven minas, to his shoulder.
He entered Innana's holy garden.

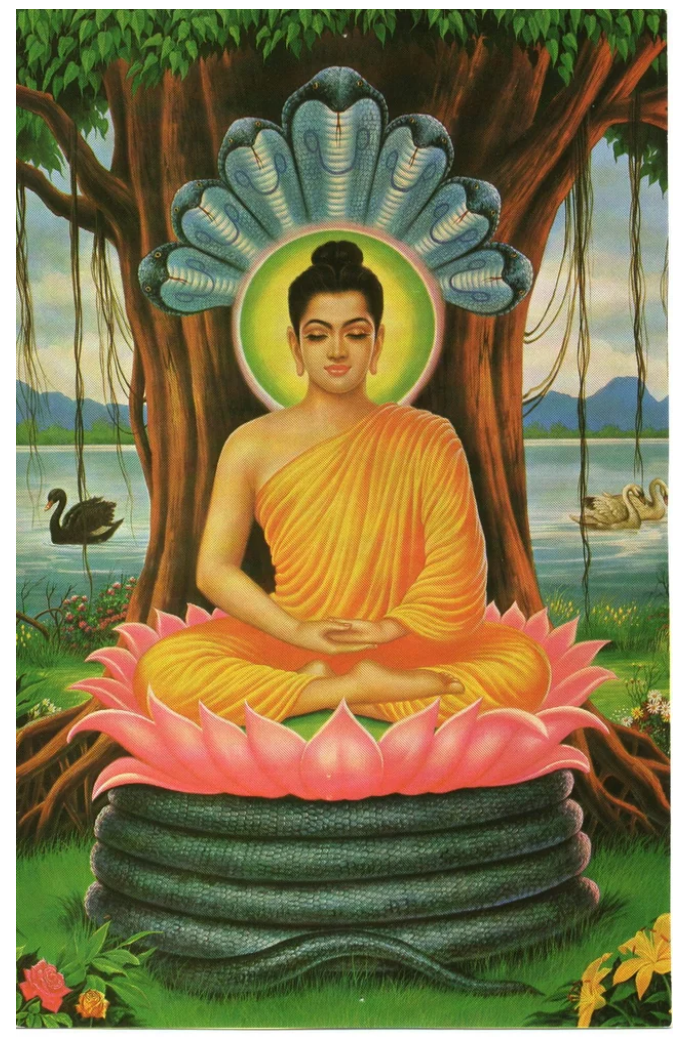

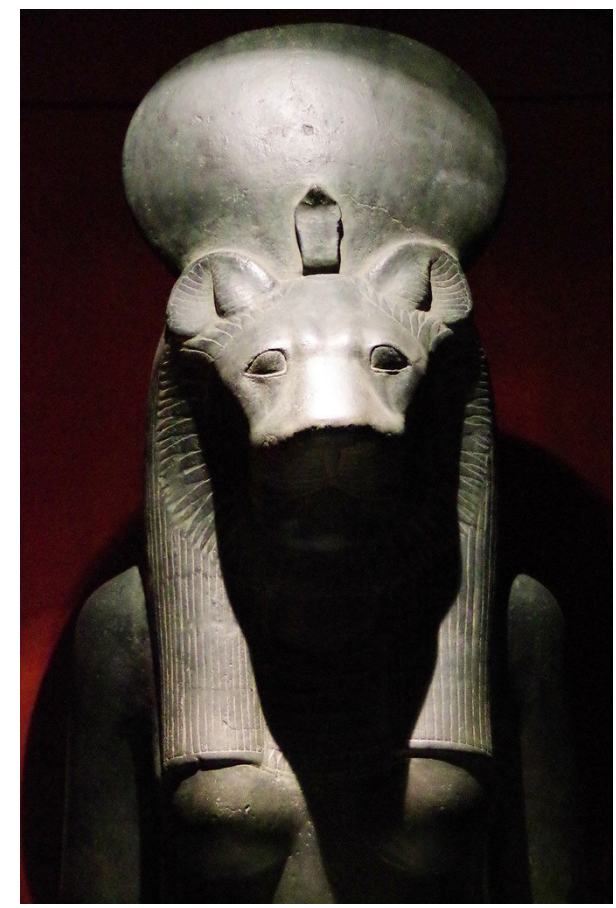

Gilgamesh struck the serpent who could not be charmed.
The Anzu bird flew with his young to the mountains.
And Lilith smashed her home and fled to the wild, uninhabited places.
(...)

From the trunk of the tree he carved a throne for his holy sister (...)

Sacred numbers
of Venus:
5 & 8

Venus cycle is a journey to descent into the Underworld
so you can reclaim your true power & attract resources & wealth to your life

Venus is the planet of your feminine power, of your ability to attract from your being and from your value.
Traditionally, it is associated with money, resources, love, beauty, and sensuality.

VENUS: The path of the feminine

- Spirit into matter.
- Power to attract.
- Be a magnet first.
- Venus is the planet that represents value, so she rules the economy as an exchange of values.
- Reflect on what you truly value: exercise checking your schedule and bank account.
- Venus is about the money that you desire (not what you need) & opening yourself to the pleasure of being magnetic, receiving and celebrating the abundance of life with your 5 senses.
- From contraction to expansion.
